WHEREAS, May first is Law Day USA. The theme for the 1970 national observance of Law Day is timely and deserves the thoughtful consideration of every citizen:

"LAW--BRIDGE TO JUSTICE"

WHEREAS, Law Day holds special importance in these times. It has been designated by Congress and the President as an occasion for individual rededication to "the ideals of equality and justice under law," and as a time to reflect upon the values which the rule of law has represented in American society since the founding of our country 194 years ago.

WHEREAS, The law has served the nation and its people for nearly two centuries. It has stood the test of a civil war and two world conflicts, economic depressions, and strains upon the very processes of government. Law has provided the structure that has enabled our country to adapt to constantly changing needs of a rapidly growing nation without sacrifice of individual freedom and democratic institutions. It affords the basic framework within which the nation is striving now to resolve equitably the social problems of housing, education, employment opportunity and discrimination.

WHEREAS, On this Law Day let every citizen acknowledge and recognize his duty to obey the law, to support the agencies of law enforcement and the courts, and to join in efforts to utilize the resources of law to improve the quality of life for all Americans.

NOW THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby designate Friday, May 1, 1970, as throughout this state, and call upon all citizens to join in its observance through appropriate ceremonies, and programs and educational activities. I especially urge the schools, churches, the courts, civic and service clubs, lay organizations, and the media of public information, to participate.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 22nd day of April in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seventy.

Frank L. Farrar
